

LIVE – LEARN – CARE*Principal's Message

What a fabulous week it has been at Seaham Public School. Our school musical has it's final performance tonight. Thank you so much to all students involved, in particular our main cast members who have spent many weeks learning lines and preparing for the show. To all of our Seaham teachers, thank you for preparing your classes to perform, in particular script writers Ms Atchison, Ms Broadbent and Mrs Bowman. To our support and office staff, thank you for all the work you have done behind the scenes. I would like to thank and congratulate Ms Atchison, who has been the driving force behind the whole production. This has been a huge effort and is much appreciated by our whole Seaham Public School community. Finally our P & C who did a fabulous job catering. Nat, Kelly Alison and their team during the night and Chrissy during the day. Your efforts are much appreciated.

NAPLAN results are in. Year three and five students will receive their envelope this week. Whole school data has been delayed so look for a NAPLAN report in the coming weeks when our staff have had a chance to look at trends, areas to celebrate and areas to work on.

State High Jumper Congratulations to Jack Armitage who was successful at the regional athletics carnival and has made it through to the state carnival at Homebush early next term. Jack has made it through in High Jump. Well done Jack.

Community PBL This weeks winner and next week's winner are receiving their community PBL award for the same reason. Ethan Rowe is this week's winner and Alex Drew is next week. Both boys heard cries for help whilst walking to the bus. It turns out an elderly lady had fallen off a ladder and injured herself. Alex and Ethan went to her aid, alerted her husband who was able to contact an ambulance. Great job boys.
